CHINESE DELEGATES ANGERED BY POLICY OF POWERS TOWARD FUTURE OF COUNTRY

Note of Inquiry Being Forwarded Today to the United States.

SHANTUNG QUESTION MAY BE FOUGHT OUT

Report of Blockade Committee Accepted by Assembly of the League.

(International News Service) GENEVA, Dec. 10.—Further dissension has been aroused in the League of Nations meeting by the Japanese and it was understood today that the Chinese delegation is sending a note of inquiry to Washington regarding the future attitude of the United States toward China.

The Chinese delegates were angered by the surprising statement of Baron Hayashi, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain, that the United States is in accord with Japan, Great Britain and France as to the future policy of the powers towards China. It is probable that the Shantung question may be fought out upon the floor of the assembly.

A resolution signed by eleven states urging the teaching of Esperanto in all schools to facilitate international conversation, was introduced today. Lord Robert Cecil, representative of South Africa, presented the report of the blockade committee, recommending the breaking of diplomatic as well as commercial relations with any nation that becomes aggressive toward a fellow member of the league.

The blockade committee's report was quickly adopted. The report leaves the question of how to deal with the United States and other non-members that may refuse to join in a blockade against an aggressor, to the international blockade commission, which will not report until the next meeting of the assembly in 1921.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSO. WILL MEET

NEW ORGANIZATION FORMED TO AID WORK OF AUSTINVILLE SCHOOLS

The newly formed organization of the Austinville school, the Parent-Teacher Association, will hold an important meeting this evening, December 10, at 6:45 o'clock.

The purpose of this meeting will be to acquaint our patrons of the existing conditions and needs of the school, enhance their appreciation of the value of education and create a greater interest in school work in general.

"Let every home send at least one representative. Your presence is needed," said Superintendent E. E. Weaver.

THREE LYNCHED BY ANGRY MOB IN GRAVEYARD

(International News Service) SANTA ROSA, Cal., Dec. 10.—Disdaining to await the process of the law, a mob of 100 men swooped down on the Sonoma county jail early today, forcibly seized George Boyd, Terrio Fitts and Charles Valento, alleged slayers of Sheriff James A. Petray, Miles Jackson and Lester Dorman and hanged them to a limb of a tree in a cemetery, three quarters of a mile from town.

The pleas of Sheriff Boyes, successor to the slain sheriff, that the law be allowed to punish the three prisoners, were unheeded. The mob, apparently well organized, stormed the jail, posted members of their own band on guard, overpowered the sheriff and took the keys. They then unlocked the cells and removed the three prisoners.

Fifteen minutes later the bodies of the men were hanging from a limb of a tree, projecting over the fence of a grave yard.

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—President Wilson today cabled his acceptance of the Noble Peace Prize. The president directed the American minister to Norway to accept the award of the committee on his behalf.

GARNETT STORE IS ROBBED THIRD TIME

THIEVES GET MERCHANDISE VALUED AT SEVERAL HUNDRED DOLLARS

"The Big Bargain Store," owned by W. W. Garnett, suffered its third robbery in eight days last night when thieves escaped with merchandise valued at several hundreds of dollars. Entrance was effected through the front door, when the thieves broke the glass and were able to reach the lock through the hole.

Displaying a daring spirit, the burglars apparently deliberately walked to the rear of the store, opened the back door and began taking out new grips, loaded with merchandise.

"The arrival of the police seemed to have frightened the burglars away," Mr. Garnett said. "Otherwise they would have taken nearly everything I had. The officers sensed something was wrong and made an investigation, but the thieves must have had watchers. They made their escape."

CHRISTMAS FEAST COSTS LESS AVERAGE DEALERS; TURKEY MARKET WATCHED

Practically All Staples Have Declined During Past Three Weeks.

FRUITS AND NUTS ARE BELOW LAST SEASON

Cranberries Star as One Product Remaining the Same in Price.

Christmas dinner this year will cost less than it did last year and slightly less than the Thanksgiving feast, it was declared today by local food dealers, basing their estimates on the present market and anticipated market of the next three weeks.

Practically all of the staples have declined during the past three weeks and many of the Christmas novelties will sell for less than they did during the 1919 Yuletide season.

As was the case Thanksgiving, all eyes were watching the turkey market to learn what price will be asked for the bird this year. Turkeys sold for approximately 37 cents on the foot Thanksgiving and some dealers believed that price would be shaded a little during the holiday season. Others, however, thought the fowl dressed will cost as much as it did Thanksgiving.

Fruits Cheaper

Practically all fruits were reported cheaper this morning than they were last Christmas or Thanksgiving. Oranges, always a popular fruit during Christmas, were reported much cheaper. Bananas and grapefruit also were cheaper. The price of all were lower than in 1919. Canned vegetables will not cost as much as they did a year ago.

Candies, probably the most popular product of the Yuletide, were reported slightly cheaper than they have been. However, dealers declared the price reduction was slight.

Nuts, second only to candy in Christmas demand, were quoted at prices under the 1919 schedule of charges. Dealers expressed the belief that the buying public can assemble a Christmas dinner at less cost than the trick could be turned twelve months ago, but that practically all price reductions have been made that will be made prior to the first of next year.

CIVIC ASSOCIATION WILL MEET TONIGHT

NEW ORGANIZATION WILL ELECT OFFICERS FOR THE ENSUING YEAR

The new Civic Association, organized as an auxiliary to the Albany Chamber of Commerce, will hold its second meeting in the rooms of the chamber at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year and the reports of the committees named at the initial meeting will be received.

The association plans to co-operate with the Chamber of Commerce in all movements looking to the improvement of the city or the upbuilding of the community, it was stated, in the outline of the plans and purposes of the organization. The membership is composed of the younger citizens, with a minimum age limit of 15 years.

Japan's Refusal Subject of Debate

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Japan's refusal to surrender the important cable station on the island of Yap was discussed in a secret conference between Acting Secretary of State, Norman Davis and the Senate foreign relations committee today. Differences between the United States and Japan regarding control of the former German cables in the Pacific have reached such an acute stage, members of the committee stated, as to create a delicate situation.

KIWANIS CLUB WILL ELECT OFFICERS AT FINAL MEETING THIS MONTH; 2 TICKETS

New Regime Will Assume Office on the First of January.

MINSTREL REHEARSALS ARE SHOWING PROGRESS

Proceeds Will be Used for the Club's Christmas Tree Fund.

The Morgan Kiwanis Club at its last meeting this month will elect its officers for the year 1921, the new regime assuming office on the first of January. Nomination of two tickets was made last night at the regular weekly banquet of the club at the Y. M. C. A. as follows:

Ticket nominated by Frank Cook: For president—John C. White. For first vice-president—C. W. Mathews.

For second vice-president—Arthur Jones. Board of directors—Fred Hunt, Paul Morrison, Walter Clopton, John Proctor, H. R. Davis.

Ticket nominated by John C. White: For president—Frank C. Cook. For first vice-president—T. M. Dix.

For second vice-president—H. R. Davis.

Board of directors—Fred Hunt, John Proctor, Arthur Jones, C. W. Mathews, Walter Clopton.

Reports were received last night from the minstrel committee, to be given at the Princess Theater December 16, showing satisfactory progress being made in preparation for the entertainment. Proceeds from the performance will be used for the Christmas tree fund of the club.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS FOR SCHOOL WEEK BROUGHT TO CLOSE

The series of morning talks in the Decatur city schools in the interest of school improvements came to a close this morning with an appeal by Mrs. J. T. Ramage for better playground facilities. The speaker showed that equipment for physical exercise is necessary to children and made many practical suggestions for carrying out this policy. The address was received enthusiastically by the school and visitors.

Superintendent Benson requested Mrs. Ramage, Mrs. W. C. Broadus and Mrs. W. T. Giles to serve as a playground committee. The hope was expressed that public-spirited citizens will co-operate in this laudable undertaking.

"It is common knowledge also that an even bigger undertaking is a necessity of the near future. This is a new school building with adequate manual training, domestic science and laboratory equipment. All these things cost money, but the people of Alabama are realizing that the safest investment of money is in the education of their children," it was pointed out.

Rev. C. C. Davison made an appeal to the students to pursue their courses through the high school and if possible through college. He presented statistics showing that a good education doubles chances of success.

Mrs. Austell, representing the Red Cross, called for the donation of school books to the poor. In response many books were brought in by students for this purpose.

Miss Marjory Rainey presented the cause of the Christmas seals. Miss Dekle's glee club rendered several songs. The Decatur city schools will adjourn for the Christmas holidays on Wednesday afternoon, December 22, and resume work on Monday, January 3.

WEATHER Fair tonight. Continued cold.

WORKING PROGRAM FOR YEAR MAPPED BY METHODISTS OF DECATUR DISTRICT

Meeting of Pastors and Stewards of Church is Held Here.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS DISCUSSED BY DELEGATES

Assessments of State Conference on the District Apportioned to Churches.

The work for the next year by Methodists of the Decatur districts was mapped out here yesterday at a regular meeting of the stewards and pastors of the district, presided over by W. P. McGlawn, newly appointed presiding elder. The business sessions were held in the First Methodist church, Decatur, the visitors being entertained by Rev. and Mrs. McGlawn at noon at a luncheon in the dining room of the Albany Chamber of Commerce.

Representatives were present from each of the pastoral charges of the district. The general business program included a lengthy discussion of the work planned for next year. "Christian Education" held a prominent part in the discussion. All phases of the movement to endow the Methodist educational institutions were discussed by the delegates. Funds for placing the schools on a sound financial basis will be collected early next year, it was expected, although details have not yet been fully worked out.

Assessments Apportioned

The conference assessments for the district were apportioned to each of the churches in the district at Thursday's meeting. The assessments apportioned the larger churches in the district follow:

Central Methodist church—District work, $88; general work, $690; conference work, $994.

Ninth Street—District work, $26; general work, $208; conference work, $291.

Athens station—District work, $89; general work, $722; conference work, $1005.

Austinville station—District work, $26; general work, $208; conference work, $291.

First church, Decatur—District work, $82; general work, $664; conference work, $938.

Hartselle station—District work, $65; general work, $537; conference work, $738.

Rev. Turner Is Active Worker

In addition to his charge as pastor of the Columbia Avenue Presbyterian church of Sheffield, Rev. L. Turner, who began his ministerial work at the Willoughby Presbyterian church, is secretary of the Rotary Club of that city. Rev. Turner issues occasional numbers of the "Rotary Booster," the official organ of the organization. The issue of December 8 shows the following officers, some of whom are well known in these cities:

Frank N. Julian, president. W. H. Martin, vice-president. W. Harvey Adams, treasurer. Herman L. Turner, secretary. M. B. Potts, sergeant-at-arms.

In the same number Mr. Julian's definition of a pessimist is given as follows: "One who wears suspenders and belt at the same time."

Dr. George Lang's description of an ideal Rotary meeting is: "A good feed, music, a lot of fun and a lot of good sense mixed with it all."

The motto accompanying the International Rotary seal is: "He profits most who serves best."

Rev. Turner's habits of industry and helpfulness, which made him invaluable in his home town, are evidently remaining with him in his adopted city.

GARRETT NAMED

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The President today named Finis J. Garrett of Dresden, Tenn., to be United States judge for the western district of Tennessee.

PERSONS CARRYING ARMS WILL BE PUT IN CLASS OF REBELS

Announcement of New Policy Toward Irish "War" Sectors is Officially Delivered in the House of Commons by Premier Lloyd George.

(International News Service.) LONDON, Dec. 10.—Martial law was declared this afternoon in the city and county of Cork, Limerick, Tipperary and Kerry counties in Ireland.

(International News Service.) LONDON, Dec. 10.—The British government has decided to proclaim martial law in certain disturbed areas of Ireland, Premier Lloyd George today announced in the House of Commons.

After a certain date persons found in the martial law districts with arms will be treated as rebels and will be liable to penalty of death for bearing arms against the British government.

"Those controlling the murder organization in Ireland are not ready for peace and therefore the government has decided upon a double policy," said the premier.

"We have no option but to continue and intensify the military campaign against a small but mighty organization, which constitutes a desperate minority. On the other hand, we have no option but to encourage every agency in Ireland which is really anxious for an honorable settlement and peace. The government has been in touch with various persons on both sides, a careful survey has convinced me that a majority of the Irish people are anxious for peace and a fair settlement. The government is no less anxious for peace," the premier added.

The premier revealed that the government has replied to the recent peace message from Father O'Flanagan, acting president of the Sinn Fein, affording him all possible facilities for discussing the true situation. The premier said that the British government cannot recognize Dail Eireann, the Sinn Fein parliament.

AGREEMENT FAILS ON CABLE LINES

NEGOTIATIONS WITH WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO. ARE UNPRODUCTIVE

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Justice Sanford of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, was today informed that negotiations between the government and the Western Union, in an attempt to reach an agreement on the controversy over cable connections at Miami, had failed.

An agreement had been sought that would permit the laying of certain cable connections at Miami on the basis of a promise that no effort would be made to connect these cables with the proposed Barbados line. As a result of the failure of negotiations, Judge Sanford permitted the filing of briefs in the Western Union application for injunction proceedings.

TEACHERS OF GORDON SCHOOL AND HIGH TO PLAY BASKETBALL

To be Feminine Affair, With "Mere Man" Acting as Goalposts.

The world's greatest basketball game is slated to be played here Monday afternoon when the faculty of the Gordon and high schools meet on the school's basketball court in a burlesque affair. It will be an entirely feminine affair, with mere man acting as goal posts, Superintendent Cowart serving in that capacity for the Gordon school and Coach W. H. Templeton for the high school.

The game will be featured by cheer leaders and everything. Any doubt that intense rivalry between the two teams will bring about a hard fought contest will be dispelled by the announcement of the line-ups for the two institutions.

An admission of five cents will be charged, the proceeds going to one of the auxiliaries of the schools. A glance over the line-ups will insure a crowd:

J. W. CLOPTON IS AGAIN HONORED BY BIG ORGANIZATION

J. W. Clopton, for the past year secretary-treasurer of the Southern Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers, has been re-elected, according to an International News Service dispatch to The Daily from Macon, Ga., today. The association has been in convention in Macon two days.

Mr. Clopton's re-election was a high tribute to the manner in which he conducted the office during the past 12 months. He is head of the Decatur Ice Cream and Creamery Company, one of the largest institutions of its kind in Alabama.

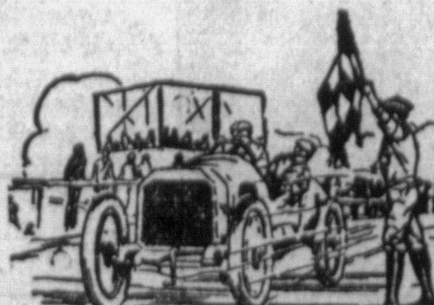

U. S. May Become Greatest Power

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The United States will be the major naval power of the world in 1923, unless Great Britain makes changes in her naval program, Secretary of the Navy Daniels said today, in commenting on press dispatches that Great Britain has deferred her program of capital ship construction until the entire question of naval strength is settled.

Secretary Daniels stated he was interested in reported agitation in England for a navy equal to the combined strength of the United States and Japanese navies. He said he would discuss this question with the House naval affairs committee next week when he appears to take up the question of the American naval program.

Minstrel Rehearsal at Masonic Tonight

Members of the Kiwanis minstrel cast are urged to bear in mind the stage rehearsal at the Masonic Theater tonight at 7:15 o'clock, at which time the complete order of program will be decided upon.

A CONDITION—A REMEDY

In an editorial, timely in its application and filled with wholesome advice, the John A. Wogan company, of New Orleans, discusses the present business outlook in a very optimistic vein, picturing the condition and suggesting the remedy.

The editorial reads:

On April 6th, 1917, the United States declared War on the Central Empires.

The people of this Republic responded generously to every demand made by our Government. It was the morale of the soldiers in France and in the training camps, as well as the morale of the people at home that brought Victory to our arms.

CONFIDENCE was the foundation of this great achievement!

Today, the Business Men of this Republic are waging another war. Not with artillery and guns, but a war nonetheless: A battle against Pessimism.

With the edict of the Reserve Board for deflation: depression, decline in values, buying from 'hand-to-mouth,' was the watchword.

How are we to bring back a good healthy normal condition?

By restoring the Morale!

By bringing back Confidence!

By preaching the Gospel of the Optimist America is not going for the "Bow-Wows" but she is simply suffering with a headache. The only way to cure that headache is CONFIDENCE.

BUY AND SELL!

Let that be your motto. You, Mr. Business Man, have the remedy.

There is a good deal of inspiration in the above. More and more armies and nations are becoming dependent on morale. It was morale which carried the American forces through the German front lines and started the general retreat of their armies. It was the confidence of the American troops that they were invincible—and they were.

Outside of the year of abnormal prosperity in this country, immediately following the armistice, there have been few times in the history of our nation when the fundamental financial condition of America was better. Prices went too high for the average pocketbook, the pocketbook was closed, the merchant could not sell, the wholesaler was unable to buy from the mill, the mill was unable to run. When the pocketbook opens again, the merchant can sell, the wholesaler can buy from the mill, the mill can run. Its a simple proposition of sequence.

Morale is the key to open the pocketbook. Lets have a little more cooperation in making times better instead of so much talk of times being hard.

SWAT THE FLY!

Swat the fly campaigns have become very popular in the United States during the heated seasons when the household pest is an unwelcome guest, but the majority of us need to be reminded occasionally in other seasons, that a "fly swatted now swats thousands later." In other words our efforts at fly extermination are magnified a thousand times in the colder months.

Flys seen between Thanksgiving and Christmas have fattened for hibernation, scientists tell us. They are languid and lazy, easy prey for an energetic fly-swatter!

Because of the influx of immigrants into the United States following the lifting of the ban after the armistice was signed, the danger of fly spreading disease is much greater than it was last year. "Swat every fly you see, and get your neighbor to do likewise," is a very good motto indeed.

CLIMBING THE HEIGHTS OF HAPPINESS

Does the public prefer a happy or an unhappy ending to a motion picture play?

The producers say that the happy one pays dividends, and that the tragic one causes a financial loss.

David Wark Griffith recently stated that the group mentality of the average motion picture audience the country over is that of a child of 14 years of age. Therefore, to please the greatest number of patrons, the producers are forced to put happy endings to hundreds of scenarios made from stories and plays which, when written, ended logically, though tragically.

"Give the audience a piece of candy at the end of the picture" is the motto of one producer who has turned many a beautiful, though tragic story into a picture which flickered out with the hero getting the girl, the villain being foiled and the mortgage on the old homestead being paid off.

Now, everybody knows life is not always that pleasant. Too often the hero loses his sweetheart, too frequently the villain triumphs, and in many cases the flint-souled mortgage owner forecloses, much to his financial gain and the discomfiture of all others concerned.

But do we, in the mass, want to see life portrayed truly on the screen? The makers of the picture say no. They should speak with authority, as they have experimented with both the happy and the tragic finale in the same story; the former always made a profit, while the latter was what they termed a "frost."

We believe that the average motion picture attendant, taken individually, does prefer the pleasant denouement, no matter what his mental powers may be. In its final analysis the theater has only one supreme purpose, and that is to amuse. The motion pictures especially offer us the chance to lose ourselves in the character of another, to imagine that we are hero or heroine, and are climbing the heights of happiness with our favorite star.

Sometimes, though, a well-known play or novel is made into a picture, and a happy finish is substituted for the ones in our midst, and those acquainted with the original form, protest against this liberty being taken.

A notable case of this kind was the sugar-coated version of Hugo's "Notre Dame," in which Theda Bara starred. Hugo was a man of strong words, and if he could have seen the manner in which his romance was changed, we imagine that he would have hurled maledictions upon all concerned.

Recently Sir Gilbert Parker's "Right of Way" was placed on the screen, with two finishes, the exhibitor being given the opportunity to choose which one he would show to his patrons. A Nashville exhibitor chose the right one, which Mr. Parker said faithfully portrayed the spirit of his book. But the Nashville audiences did not like it. It was too sad, too solemn. Elsewhere the happy ending proved to be a bonanza.

A new release by Mary Pickford, called "Suds," being supplied with two last reels, the happy and the unhappy one. Each exhibitor will be permitted to show the one which he believes that his audiences will like the better.

Rudyard Kipling acknowledged the feeling of the crowd in his regard when he wrote a happy last act for his "The Light That Failed," when it was presented on the stage. Forbes-Robertson presented that version of it, but, strange to say, theater audiences in the North would have none of it, saying that the spirit of the story was ruined by that dose of saccharine.

The producer of Pinero's "Mid-Channel," which was shown here last week, evidently possessed an artistic conscience; also he had an eye to the box office. Those who saw Ethel Barrymore on the legitimate stage in this drama will remember that it had a tragic close, which was the only logical one. This producer followed the text faithfully, but at the last moment he inserted a "close-up" of the heroine reading a book, "Mid Channel."

So everyone went home believing that the world was still a decent place to live in.

But this trick cannot be used frequently. The novelty would wear off. Yet the lovers of literature would protest if every great story was mangled in order that the audience might go home in a happy mood. Who wants to see "Hamlet" end happily? Who would have "A Tale of Two Cities" with a dance on the Place de la Concorde instead of the guillotine scene?

If these masterpieces are to be filmed, we say give us the original version, scene for scene; but let the pictures which are made from scenarios written in the studios terminate with a hop-skip-and-jump of joy. Then nine-tenths of the time we can be lulled into a spirit of forgetfulness; we may climb the heights of happiness with our favorite star. The other tenth of the time we may witness grim tragedy and go home shudderingly, but thanking our stars that the grace of God made us what we are, and not as those characters on the screen.—Nashville Tennessean.

Mr. W. R. Shelton, Business Manager
The Albany-Decatur Daily,
Albany, Alabama.

My Dear Mr. Shelton:

My attention has just been called to an editorial on the child labor law and its enforcement which was carried in your issue of December 3. I am writing to express my appreciation of this article and of the clear, forceful statements contained therein.

The last legislature enacted one of the best child labor laws in the South. Its provisions are entirely in harmony with those of the federal child labor law, also the compulsory education act. We have tried very diligently to win the sympathy and understanding of all employers of children, but the time seems to have come when persistent violations of the law must be carried into the courts for adjustment. We realize that the economic situation of the state is distressing. We shall probably have a great deal of adult unemployment. I have the feeling that we should not lose sight of this adult unemployment, but keep it squarely before employers and, in order to make room for employment of adults, we should keep our children in school.

Again assuring you of my appreciation, I am, very sincerely yours,
(MRS.) L. B. BUSH,
Director.

Thanking the want ad for the quick work the paper did in finding my watch-bracelet. Thanking you again, a reader.

Carnegie Library Is Opened Again

The Carnegie library, which has been closed several weeks while repairs were made to the handsome building, is open again today, Miss Leadingham, the librarian, announced.

AFTER a baking fails — becomes tough or soggy, you can't make it tender and tempting. It can't be "fixed." It is like spilled milk—"wasted."

But, there is a way to prevent this waste — and every woman should use it—because a bake day loss these days is a real loss. When just an ordinary cake turns out bad—you are out the biggest part of a dollar.

Calumet Baking Powder positively prevents failure. It has been doing it for millions of housewives for a third of a century.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

BEST BY TEST

Makes most palatable and sweetest of foods

The biggest selling Baking Powder in the world. Produced in the largest, most modern, sanitary baking powder factories.

Possesses only such ingredients as have been officially approved by United States Food Authorities.

Highest awards, World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago—Paris Exposition, Paris, France.

Full weight—fair price. Most economical in cost and use. You save when you buy it. You save when you use it.

The body needs gluten. Be sure you get it. Use only plain wheat flour and pure baking powder. Mix them yourself. No ready prepared substitute or mixture (self-rising flour) will answer the purpose.

"Felt Like Eating"

Man and Wife, All Run-Down from Farm Work,
 Were Greatly Helped by Ziron.

"MY WIFE and I, after a hard spring on the farm, were tired and run-down," says Mr. E. B. Mulkey, of Route 1, Acworth, Ga. "We neither felt well. I knew my blood was bad, as I had little boils on the back of my neck."

"We felt we needed a builder. We had heard of Ziron and thought it must be what we needed. It certainly was. We took it faithfully, and after a week or such a matter we began to feel better. My wife felt like cooking, and I sure felt like eating. "Ziron sure did us good. It made us both feel stronger and better for the fall work, which everyone knows is 'some work' on a farm. My boils began to dry up, though just at first they ached worse."

"We are much better and can highly recommend Ziron, and gladly do so for it sure did us good."

Ziron is a safe, reliable, tonic medicine, good for men, women and children, when an iron tonic is indicated. It is easy to take and contains no habit-forming drugs. Ask your druggist or dealer.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

A business meeting of the Young People's Missionary Society of the First M. E. church, was held on Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Brown. After the devotional the following officers were elected for the next year: Miss Mary Chapel Rogers, correspondence secretary; Miss Odelle Davis, publicity and mission study superintendent; Miss Lucile Phinizy, social service superintendent; Miss Rowena Baker, superintendent of supplies.

A social hour followed and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The January meeting will be held at the home of Miss Anna May Gardiner.

HELEN RAUSCHENBERG'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

A most delightful birthday party was that given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. W. F. Rauschenberg to celebrate the eighth anniversary of her little daughter, Helen. Contests and games were enjoyed during the afternoon, after which the little folks were invited into the dining room, where ice cream, cake and other goodies awaited them. A pretty color scheme of red and green Christmas colors was effectively carried out in the refreshments and living and dining room decorations. Burning red candles in crystal candlesticks surrounded the birthday cake, elaborately frosted in white with eight tiny candles of red.

Baskets and crystal vases of holly, potted plants, arranged on the table and buffet added the final touch to the pretty scene.

Many pretty and useful birthday presents, received by the little honoree, were a tribute to her popularity among her little friends.

Those invited to Helen's party were: Elizabeth Hudson, Marie Patterson, Margaret Patterson, Annie Louise Maushy, Dorothy Buttrey, Jean Humphrey, Barbara Davis, Evelyn Hanna, Sarah Bloodworth, Jervis Jones, Jean Draper, Carolyn Worley, Lucy Haywood Binford, Jane Neville, Sarah Wilks, Billy Boswell and Joe Terry.

THURSDAY ROOK CLUB

Miss Emma Holtman entertained the Thursday Rook club yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Holtman on Gordon Drive.

The living room of the home was prettily decorated in holly and poinsettias, where the three card table were arranged. A box of dainty linen handkerchiefs was won by Mrs. Fred Sittason, while the guest prize was presented Miss Kaleen Day. Following the game a delightful salad course was served by the hostess, Miss Elizabeth Berry assisting.

Club members present were: Mrs. Ed Berry, Mrs. John Hamlin, Mrs. Fred Sittason, Mrs. Elmer Moles, Mrs. R. Sittason, Mrs. Corine Long and Miss Anna Holtman. The club guests for the afternoon were: Mrs. Joe Wilder, Mrs. W. Stinson, Mrs. W. Ezell and the Misses Kaleen Day, Mary Hodges, Louise Ellner and Louise Holtman.

Mrs. A. M. Jones has returned to her home in Vincent, Ala., after a visit of three weeks to her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Prince.

Miss Carollee Speake, who has been ill for the past week, is reported as convalescent.

NALL-TROTMAN ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nall and Wood announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucy Trotman, to Mr. Willis Fred Nall of Troy, the marriage to occur late in December. The above announcement will be of great interest in Troy and throughout Alabama. Miss Trotman is one of Troy's most beautiful, charming and popular young girls. She is a graduate of Troy Normal. Mr. Nall, connected with the First National Bank, is popular in business, social and fraternal circles.

The foregoing, which is taken from the Troy Messenger, is of interest to Miss Trotman's friends here, where she has been employed as a teacher in the Gordon school.

MISS THOMPSON HONORED

Miss Vera Motes entertained last evening at her home on Eighth avenue, with a miscellaneous shower, in honor of her friend, Miss Norine Thompson, a bride-elect of December the fifteenth.

The parlor was beautifully decorated in pink and white, with potted plants and ferns, while the honoree wore a pink gown with white slippers and crown, she being "queen" of the evening. The hostess was attired in blue Tricotine while Mrs. G. C. Walker, who assisted her in receiving the guests and presents, wore green tricotine. The many pretty, as well as useful presents, showed with what esteem the bride-elect is held in the community. After the presentation of the gifts, the hostess' mother invited the forty or more guests into the dining room where light refreshments were served.

Miss Allie Foree left Tuesday for Chattanooga, where she will spend a week before she returns to her home in Athens, Tenn., as the guest of her cousin, Miss Mary Penick. Miss Foree was the recipient of many social courtesies.

NOTICE

Will the ladies having money or tickets for the hospital concert please return them to Mrs. R. H. Wolcott at once. The committee has called for them, but in many instances found no one at home.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Yesterday at the Lyons, Mrs. Hardy Burt was a bridge luncheon hostess. A four course luncheon was served at an attractive table, centered by a tall crystal vase of Killarney roses. After lunch the guests were invited to the parlor where the bridge tables awaited them, and several hours were spent in a most interesting game. The prizes offered, a beautiful hand decorated vase for high score, was awarded Mrs. Donnell, while the gold topped cylinder cologne, for low score, fell to Mrs. E. W. Godbey.

Mrs. Burt's guest list was composed of the following: Mesdames C. B. Elliott, B. P. Wallace, J. L. Robinson, E. W. Godbey, J. H. Donnell, Misses Mary Lou and Unity Dancy.

MRS. DRISKILL CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. W. H. Driskill was a delightful hostess yesterday when she entertained the Auction Bridge Club at her attractive home, 414 Lafayette street. Four tables were arranged for the game in living and dining rooms. Top score prize, Italian silk hose, was presented Mrs. W. B. Markstein. After

How the men folks do like hot, fluffy biscuits fresh from the oven! And baked with Dainty Flour—well—they just can't be beat.

Dainty Flour, you see, is milled by a special slow process from carefully selected soft winter wheat. It retains all the unusual baking qualities found only in such grain. It can't help producing better baking!

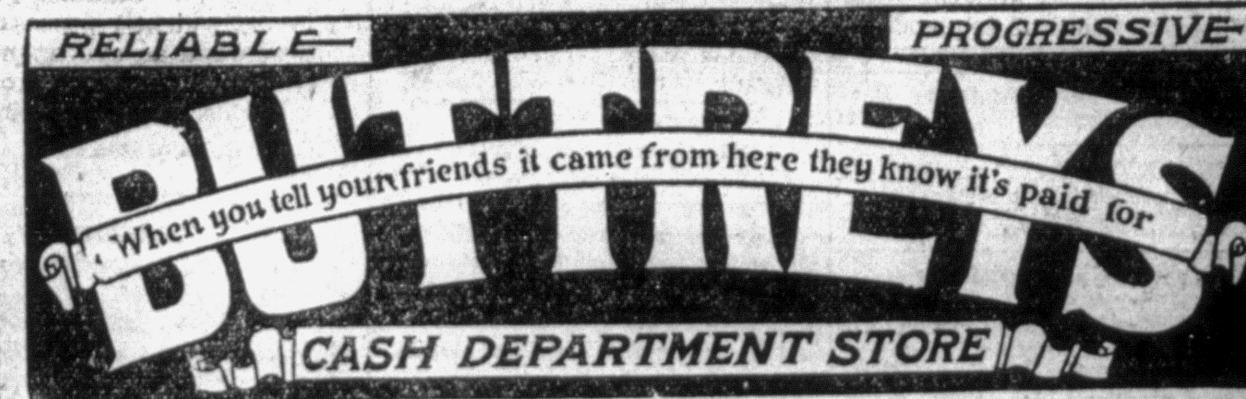

Because of its high quality Dainty costs more than ordinary flour. Yet in the long run it's economical. Dainty requires less lard. And think of the better baking!

LAST SLAVE MART IN WORLD CLOSED BY FRENCH IN MOROCCO

Troops Entering the City of Ouezzan Find Scores of Men and Beautiful Girls Captured in Unexplored Regions in South Offered for Sale by Slave Hunters—Slave Market Had Been Monthly Feature of the Sacred City for Year.

(International News Service)
PARIS, Dec. 10.—What is believed to have been the last slave market in existence in the world has just been wiped out by the French authorities.
When French troops entered the sacred city of Ouezzan, in Morocco, a short time ago, they discovered the slave market still in existence. On the very day the French arrived a long caravan approached the city bringing in several score of slaves of both sexes captured by slave hunters in the unexplored regions to the south.

The slave hunters fled and the entire crowd of slaves were liberated by the French.

For many decades, perhaps centuries, the slave auction had been a monthly feature of life in Ouezzan.
The caravans arrived as a rule early in the month and hundreds of buyers flocked into the city for the auctions and the accompanying festivals.

On the day of the opening of the sale all the human "stock" was placed in a circular enclosure in an open place near the center of the city.
Slave buyers wandered about discussing the merits of the "stock" like connoisseurs at an automobile show.
Unmarried women usually brought double the price of those who were married and there was always a lively competition for the most beautiful of the unmarried girls. The highest price was paid for men with good physiques.

According to natives of Ouezzan,
the slaves were generally well treated.
Some of the women were received into their masters' homes almost on equal footing with wives. The slave dealers were forced to share part of the proceeds of the sale with the city.

would come again. Wishing for a car will not get you one but your efforts during spare time devoted to taking subscriptions to The Daily will fulfil that long-felt want—a good car without having to dig down into your "pocket" to get it. Put your thought into action and make your spare mo-

FIRST OF CONFERENCES TO SHAPE NEW ADMINISTRATION'S POLICY HELD

(International News Service) MARION, O., Dec. 10.—The first of the conferences which are expected to shape the international and domestic policies of the Harding administration was held here today.

Charles Evans Hughes, standard bearer of the Republican party in 1916, arrived early this morning to discuss with President-elect Harding the pressing questions which face the new chief executive. Mr. Hughes is the first of the men and women prominent in national affairs who are expected to come to Marion to aid Senator Harding with their counsel and advice. He will be followed Sunday by Herbert Hoover. Elihu Root and William Howard Taft are expected before the end of the next week, while Senators Hitchcock and Shields, from the Democratic ranks, are also expected to arrive in the near future.

DAM STRUCTURE GROWING DAILY

BOULDERS ARE CRUSHED AND FINE ROCK USED IN CEMENT

Ey J. E. Blair

In Monday's Daily I told of some of the progress being made on the construction of the Wilson dam. Today there are other details of the construction I will relate.

The center dam fastening is an island in the middle of the river. On it is placed the rock crusher and cement plant from whose product within a few years is to be welded the entire structure of the Wilson dam. The same kind of rock as nature put at either end of the proposed dam is being used to build the water barrier. Boulders as large as four feet square are taken in and crushed by the mighty machinery of the mixing plant. The rocks are brought from a quarry on cars and dumped into the hopper of the mixer. Said receptacle resembles the wheat hoppers as seen by country boys at the old-fashioned water grist mills in the long ago. Only this modern hopper is very much larger. It is driven by electricity and he belt on the dynamo is as large as the one which drives the machinery at the Louisville and Nashville shops. By a system of carrying belts the rock-grist is carried up and up until it reaches the top of the great mixing plant. Then it is gradually released and the small stones by means of milling processes become as fine as powder by the time they reach the ground. This powder is carried away then to the dam and made by a chemical process, similar to the one nature originally employed, made into solid rock grain. Nothing but this cement-rock is to go into the structure of the dam, carrying some steel reinforcements. The Wilson dam will not look so different from the dams small boys once built along the spring branch except in size. And whereas one or two individuals built the spring branch dams, thousands will work on the Wilson dam. Today is pay-day for the dam force and brand new pay stations appear, where the U. S. envelopes will be handed out filled with the coin of the realm. Two shifts, composed of all sorts of craftsmen, as in the past are now at work. The first starts at 7:30 a. m. and the second quits at 11 p. m.

Close-Up View

Following the destruction of the rock crusher and mixer, valued at 1,000,000, in the summer and some other accidents, makes it extremely difficult to get on the Wilson dam. Only the timely intervention of Capt. Henry Fox, an engineer in charge of certain sections of the dam, made it possible for the writer to get a close-up view. A chance acquaintance with Mr. Fox and the fact that he was good enough to remember me did the good work. As the day was ideal for sight-seeing, many visitors were out from the Twin Cities of Sheffield and Florence. All along the way back to the latter city new houses built since the early fall were noticed, which were filled with the families of hundreds of new workers—unmistakable evidence that Uncle Sam means to "go thru" with the work without a hitch, which in time is to bring the Tennessee Valley and the entire Southland into their own.

Lady Grateful for Help Received

"For 15 years I suffered increasingly with stomach and liver trouble. Floating with gas distressed me very much and caused serious heart fluttering. All medicine only relieved temporarily. I gave up hope of ever being cured. My druggist advised me one day to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I am feeling like a new woman since and can now eat anything with no ill results." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the caustic mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One does will convince or money refunded. S. M. Thompson, Albany; Owl Drug Co., Decatur, and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Two Considered As "Mediators"

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—President Wilson is expected to name a mediator to settle differences between Armenia and the Turkish nationalists. It was announced in the White House. This action is in response to a personal invitation from the League of Nations. Henry Morgenthau of New York and Major-General Harbord have been prominently mentioned as possibilities for the appointment.

Big Fire Loss is Reported on Farm

A report reached here today of a disastrous fire on the farm of Lon Cunningham, east end of Morgan county, today. It was stated the loss would reach nearly $10,000, a building, silo, large quantity of corn and 25 bales of cotton, as well as several farm implements, being destroyed, according to the report here.
